Sermon: The Empty Chair — Ambassadors
Text: 2 Corinthians 5:14–21

---

1 – Pray Together [the first and most important priority]
"If your Presence does not go with us, do not send us up from here." — Exodus 33:15

Take time to share needs and pray for one another before moving into the discussion.

Through Jesus Christ, God has reconciled us to Himself, forgiven our sins, and made us new. But His work doesn't stop with us. Paul reminds us that we've also been entrusted with the message of reconciliation. We are Christ's ambassadors, called to represent Him wherever we go. Sharing Jesus isn't simply a church program or a special emphasis. It's part of who we are as His followers. We are people sent by Jesus to help others find their way home to Him.

2 – Open/Check-In

Who is someone who has represented Jesus well in your life? What made their example meaningful to you?

3 – The Word / 2 Corinthians 5:14–21

What stands out to you in these passages? What does it mean to you that God has entrusted us with the message of reconciliation?

4 – Reflect

How might our everyday lives look different if we really saw ourselves as Christ's ambassadors wherever we go?

Why is it sometimes easier to think of sharing our faith as a church activity rather than a part of everyday life?

5 – Respond (Spiritual Formation/Growth)

Who has God placed in your life that needs to experience His love and hear the good news of Jesus?

What is one intentional step you could take this week to represent Christ in that person's life?

***

Ask the Lord to help you see people as He sees them and to give you the courage and compassion to represent Jesus well.
