Sermon: The River
Text: Ezekiel 47:1–12

Ezekiel sees a river flowing out from the temple of God—and the farther it flows, the deeper it becomes. The picture points us toward the life God gives through His presence. Jesus later echoes this same promise when He speaks of “living water” flowing within those who believe in Him (John 7:38). God does not merely invite us to admire the river from a distance, but to step in more deeply and allow His Spirit to bring life where we are dry, weary, or barren.

1 – Open/Check-In

Do you enjoy swimming? Would you rather swim in an ocean, lake, river, or pool?
How do you feel about deep water?

2 – The Word / Ezekiel 47:1–12

What stands out to you in these passages?

3 – Reflect

1. What best describes your relationship with God:
(a) Dying of thirst? (b) Man overboard? (c) Treading water?
(d) Overflowing? (e) Water-logged? (f) Smooth sailing?
2. Does some area of your life feel spiritually dry or barren right now?
What would “living water” look like there?

4 – Respond (Spiritual Formation/Growth)

1. Is there an area of your life where you have been resisting going “deeper” with God?
2. Jesus said rivers of living water would flow from those who trust Him.
3. How could God use your life to bring encouragement, hope, or refreshment to someone else this week?

5 – Pray Together

Pray for God to bring life to dry places—in your own life, your family, your church, and your community.

Pray for courage to trust Jesus more deeply and follow wherever He leads
